Nili,

I hope things are going well. Last time we spoke I know you were in Moscow. I hope it was a successful trip. I did want to follow up with you on the payments for Ehud's two most recent events on December 19, 2013 and January 26, 2013.

I wrote you in late December but never got a formal reply. I wanted your guidance on how we handle the Azerbaijan situation. I had proposed to you that we apply the net fee for each of these engagements to offset the over-payment for the Azerbaijan event we previously made to his account for the May 7, 2013 event.

As you'll recall, while the full fee for that event was $200,000 we only received a total of $70,000 from the host. Given that this is significantly less than what was promised and the fact that Ehud traveled so far to make the event a successful one, we felt that you should receive the full amount paid by this group. Since we paid Ehud $170,000 towards this event already, to make things as easy as possible, we proposed simply withholding $100,000 from his most recent events to offset the amount overpaid to him. We are still doing everything we can to try to collect from this organization, but the intermediary with whom we were speaking, whom we know from 3 engagements he scheduled for President Clinton, has unfortunately had legal troubles and will be unable to help us further on this, although we are still trying every possible avenue.

The two events that took place this year are detailed below. We have withheld a total of $93,500 of the $100,000 overpayment. We will deduct the remaining $6,500 from the payment for his next event on February 23, 2014 in Palm Beach with American Friends of Magen David Adom. We will wire the balance payment to Ehud the day after this event takes place.

Of course, let me know if you have any questions or need anything else. I hope you think this is a fair procedure – frankly I will handle this any way you see fit. This is what I had proposed back in December, but if you want this handled another way please feel free to let me know.
